2 GEIR: Enron, this is Geir.

3 MARK: Hey, Gary, Mark at Portland General.

4 GEIR: Hey, Mark.

5 MARK: Hey, that 25 –

6 GEIR: Water Power again.

7 MARK: Water Power, yessiree.

8 GEIR: I just forgot to call you.

9 MARK: Hey, don't worry about it.

10 GEIR: Thank you.

11 MARK: All right. Thanks, bye.

12 =====

13 PERSON 1: And they want to do it this hour, so we need to send 'em 4 – 4 this hour to 14 APS at Four Corners. Can you do that, real time?

15 PERSON 2: Well, I'm in a bind right now. I'm – I'm draining 28 megawatts.

16 PERSON 1: OK.

17 PERSON 2: You know, my spin is bad, you know. You know, just because ah, they say we
18 – we won't – we do it and, you know – we're down to 10 megawatts in. You tell him no that 19 I can't. I mean, this real-time stuff gotta stop, you know what I mean?

20 PERSON 1: Did they take down – they – they weren't supposed to take down GT2, I just 21 talked to 'em.

22 PERSON 2: We're not going to take it off. We took Copper off and I'm – and I'm draggin'
23 and I'm done with my spin.

24 PERSON 1: Ah, let me – I'll –

25 GEIR: What happened here? Did we lose the unit or something?

26 PERSON 1: This is – it was just a minute ago, it was showin' we had good spin. Let me,
27 um, I'll get some power within the hour, OK?

28 =====

1 [dialing/ ringing]

2 RYAN: [inaudible] West, Ryan.

3 GEIR: Hey, Ryan, Geir, Enron here. We were saying – we were supposed to have the 4
4 megawatts of losses this hour?

5 RYAN: Ah, I don't know anything about it. You sure you sent it to the marketing side?

6 GEIR: I have no I – no, I think I sent it to the transmission side.

7 RYAN: Yeah, so I don't know.

8 GEIR: OK, thank you.

9 RYAN: Mm hm, bye.

10 =====

11 [dialing/ ringing]

12 GEIR: Did you call the transmission or the real time?

13 [continued ringing]

14 GEIR: Well fuck [inaudible], damn it.

15 [ringing]

16 =====

17 [dialing/ ringing]

18 GEIR: What!

19 [ringing]
